

Manuel Duran

Career Summary

Computer Engineer, 3 years of experience in application development focused on the frontend area oriented to web development. Experience with React, Express, NodeJS and Mongo under the framework of agile methodologies and deployment of modern applications with GCP and Netlify.

Summary of Qualifications

Proficient In:

- | | | | |
|--------------|---------------|----------------|----------------|
| • HTML | • React | • Mongo | • Google Cloud |
| • CSS | • Material UI | • PostgreSQL | • Netlify |
| • JavaScript | • Gastby | • Apollo Graph | |

Languages

- | | |
|---------------------------|---------------------|
| •Spanish (native speaker) | •English (advanced) |
|---------------------------|---------------------|

Career History

AMICAR, Santiago, Chile

Jun. 2021 – Nowadays

Frontend Developer

- Retake and launching to production the project "Amices", focusing on vehicle credit simulations, store client data and connection with different financial entities,
- Maintain not only the frontend of the project but also make modifications in the queries generated to the core from the backend to the core using mongoose DB and Sequelize from the core to the database in Postgres.
- Understand and maintain major changes and modifications at the core of the business.

BACO Restaurant, Santiago, Chile

Feb. 2020 – May. 2021

Web Developer

- Develop a food delivery application with a Backoffice, API connection and sales registration for service, delivery control and control of online orders through a webapp for the company.
- Development of a dynamic responsive web digital food menu based on the QR model for the different branches of the company.
- Updating and modernization of the website and different digital channels of the company

Education

territorial polytechnic university of Aragua, La Victoria, Venezuela
Computer Engineer

Jan. 2009 – Jun. 2014